

INSURANCE ::: CAREER DAY

Learn about

- A billion-dollar industry that has all kinds of job openings.
- A career that offers a good salary, flexibility, great benefits and advancement.
- Jobs that fit all different interests like actuaries, customer service reps, claims handlers, insurance agents, and even drone pilots.
- Why you don't even need a college degree.
- All different types of policies for musicians, athletes, businesses, homeowners and even art collectors and classic car owners.
- How to get involved with your local community and help people.
- Training programs and college courses that focus on insurance and risk management if you'd like to continue your education.

Guest Speaker

